Nexus number 1

Nexus Primary School from Khahlanyoni in Harrismith obtained first position in the music category of the provincial Baswa le Meetse competition organized by Department of Water and Sanitation. The event was held at the Bon Hotel in Bloemfontein on Wednesday, 6 March.

Educator Mamohlolo Nhlapo said that during the competition Grade 6 and 7 learners were tasked with conveying a message on how to save water and educating the audience on the the importance of water in our lives through various mediums that included music, drama, poster, poetry and praise poetry.

The school will be representing the Free State Province at national level in Gauteng later this year. The school obtained a trophy and a cash prize for their winning performance.
